Jacques Willem Maris was born in 1932. He was born in Nijmegen but grew up in Otterlo, where he lived during the war. Jacques was 8 years old and he knows that many of family members were part of the Dutch Resistance. His father was unfortunately captured, being a soldier and taken to a concentration camp in Poland. During this interview, he talks about

Peace and tolerance - the Holocaust Memorial Day 2016

27th January is the Holocaust Memorial Day- a day when we remember all those affected by Holocaust, Nazi Persecution and subsequent genocides in Cambodia, Bosnia, Rwanda and Darfur.

We wanted to highlight that in our project as many participants ranked peace and tolerance in our "What matters in your life?" poll. Here are some of the materials we used with our students:

'Vietnam; The Real War' exhibition
Booklet about Holocaust Memorial Day
Poster - 8th stages leading to genocide
Book 'I Promised I Would Tell'
