A screenshot of the Voki website's character creation interface. The interface is divided into several sections: a central preview window showing a brown horse character with a white blaze on its face, a "Customize Your Character" section with icons for head, hair, glasses, and a folder, a "Give It A Voice" section with icons for a telephone, keyboard, microphone, and folder, a "Backgrounds" section with a tree icon, and a "Tweak" section with sliders for mouth, nose, body, height, and width. There are also "Cancel" and "Publish" buttons at the bottom.
