A screenshot of the Quizalize website homepage. The header is dark purple with the Quizalize logo on the left and navigation links "Plans", "Demo and resources", "Contact and help", "Teacher Login", and "Students enter code" on the right. The "Teacher Login" link is highlighted with a red box and a red arrow points to it from below. The main content area has a dark purple background with the text "Make a difference to each and every one of your students." and a "How it works" button. Below this is a paragraph about quiz games and personalization. There are two buttons: "Teachers Start here - it's free" (highlighted with a red box and a red arrow points to it from below) and "Students Enter code". At the bottom left, there is a link "School leaders and Instructional Coaches" with a red arrow pointing to it from below. On the right side, there is a large illustration of a teacher and students in a classroom setting, with a play button icon at the bottom right.

Title: London's Famous Sights

Once upon a time, there was a young boy named Ben. Ben loved adventures and dreamed of visiting London, a city full of amazing places. One bright morning, his dream came true. He was so excited!

First, he visited the big clock called Big Ben. It was very tall and made a loud "Dong" sound every hour. Then, he saw a huge wheel near the river. It was the London Eye. From the top, Ben could see the whole city. It was beautiful.

Next, he went to see the Tower of London. It was an old castle with many stories. Ben imagined being a knight in the old days. He also saw

Title: Exploring London's Famous Sights

London, the capital of the United Kingdom, is a city full of history and culture. It has many famous sights that attract people from all over the world. Here are some of the must-see attractions.

Firstly, the London Eye is a big wheel that gives you a beautiful view of the city. It moves slowly, so you can see everything from the top. It's like watching the city from the sky!

Another famous place is the Tower of London. It is very old and was a home, a prison, and now a museum. You can see the Crown Jewels there. They are very shiny and valuable.

Next, you cannot miss Buckingham Palace. It is where the Queen lives. Sometimes, you can watch the Changing of the Guard. This is when soldiers change places in a special ceremony. It looks very
