StoryJumper – collaboration

The screenshot shows the StoryJumper interface. At the top left, there are navigation options: 'My Classes', 'Add Class', and 'Import Google Classroom'. Below 'My Classes' is a message: 'You haven't added or imported any classes, yet.' and a box for 'Archived Classes'. At the top right, there are buttons for 'Buy Book', 'Share Book', 'Collaborate', and 'Save & Exit'. A callout box with an arrow points to the 'Collaborate' button, containing the text 'Invite other people to edit this book'. At the bottom left, there are more navigation options: 'My Books', 'Create Book', 'Earn Royalties', and 'Promote Your Book'. A second arrow points from the 'Create Book' button towards the 'Collaborate' button.

In StoryJumper you can create a class and invite your students to access it or invite other users (e.g. teachers) to work together on the same book. Teachers need to sign in to be able to use StoryJumper if they don't have an account.

This screenshot shows the 'Invite co-authors to collaborate on this book' form. It features a blue icon with a person and a plus sign. Below the icon is a text input field labeled 'Enter co-author's email' and a blue 'Invite' button. At the bottom, it lists 'Collaborators: Monika K. MonikaKhan'.
